

MONKEY ISLAND BRASSERIE DRINKS LIST

Over 800 years ago, a small band of monks settled near Bray Loch, establishing fishing ponds at the north end of Monkey Island. Aptly christened "Monks Eyot".

The legends that have unfolded since then are colourful and intriguing.

For many years the Island served as a private angling retreat to Charles Spencer, 3rd Duke of Marlborough, a chapter bestowing Monkey Island with the Grade 1 Listed buildings and the playful monkey frescos that remain today.

From rumours of George III banishment to the Island in the company of his pet monkey, to lawn lunches of Queen Alexandra. Monkey Island has been the haunt of monarchs, aristocrats, artists and a cast of characters that weave a most remarkable tale.
